Time flies -- Time races

Time and friends

hand in hand

Our last truly carefree summer is at an end. Time brings change - - - new places and new faces. But we will make this a year to remember.

So we look to our School where friends will be - - - and serious thoughts, too.

So short a time since we entered the first grade in this building. It was built in 1926 and completed in 1936. Many of our parents attended school here.

The present high school building was completed in 1944. All rooms were not used by high school classes then but we are quite crowded now.

In 1948 this building was erected for students who were interested in training in agriculture. The shop has been used for veterans' classes, too.

Over-crowding is a problem in the primary grades, so in 1953 the first grade building was constructed.

As time goes on, the new gymnasium will be completed, and a more adequate program in Physical Education will be available. It will be connected to the present high school building by another much needed science room and classroom.

Dedication

He has been with our school for a long time, but he is retiring this year. He often went the "second mile" to help and interest his students. By practicing his firm belief that education and religion are inseparable, he has influenced the lives of many students.

Sharing honors with her husband is a teacher whom we learned to love and respect when we were quite young. Through her we pay tribute to our different primary teachers.

It is with pride that we, the class of 1959, dedicate the ninth edition of The Blue Jay to . . .

MR. and MRS. HARVEY MADISON

Faculty

and Administration

Mr. Guy T. Swain, our principal, must have received some pleasing news like, "Yes, I am really sick today. I'm not laying out of school."

We are fortunate in having a school board so up-to-date and vitally interested in our school. Mr. Marshall Adams, Mr. Roy Boles, and Mr. Bob Snow.

Miss Marie Haigwood, our friendly county supervisor of instruction, is always welcomed by teachers and students. Mr. Fred Hobson, our county superintendent, promotes better schools early and late.

Mrs. Gertrude Salmons, Librarian and English teacher, is always working to keep the library in top shape and teach the hard subject of English IV.

Miss Peggy Lewis doesn't look this happy in Journalism and Public Speaking. She must save it for her English classes.

Mrs. Stacie Groce, our office secretary, is pleasing to look at as well as very efficient.

Mrs. Louise Randleman, our Science teacher, isn't afraid of the biggest snake or ugliest spider.

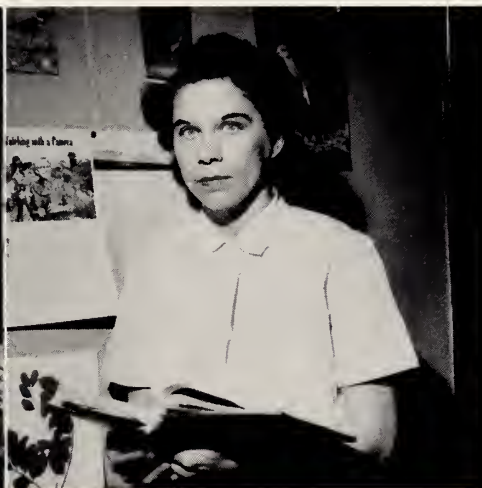

Mr. John Charles, Civics teacher and football Coach, hustles the students in the classroom as well as the team on the field.

Miss Mary Speer, frequently called Miss Algebra, is seen here with her famous "little brown notebook" and, of course, she is checking on something for the annual.

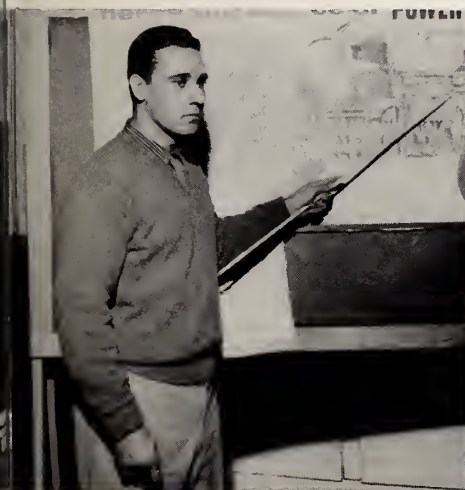

Mr. Joe Stroud, our Physics teacher, seems to be saying, "Well now, we have perfect attendance today."

Mrs. Jane Holcomb, our French teacher, looks much too serious for her "Romper Room" students . . . French II, 3rd period.

Mr. John Wesley Mathis, Social Studies teacher and basketball coach, is asking how many people are in Sputnik II.

Mr. Gerald Boles, our Agriculture teacher, is always prepared to teach the boys anything from farming to the complicated setup of machinery.

Mrs. Ola Hendren, our Home Economics teacher, is always cooking up something new, be it wearable or edible.

Mrs. Faye Boles, the Commercial teacher, has a look of "Class, please be quiet."

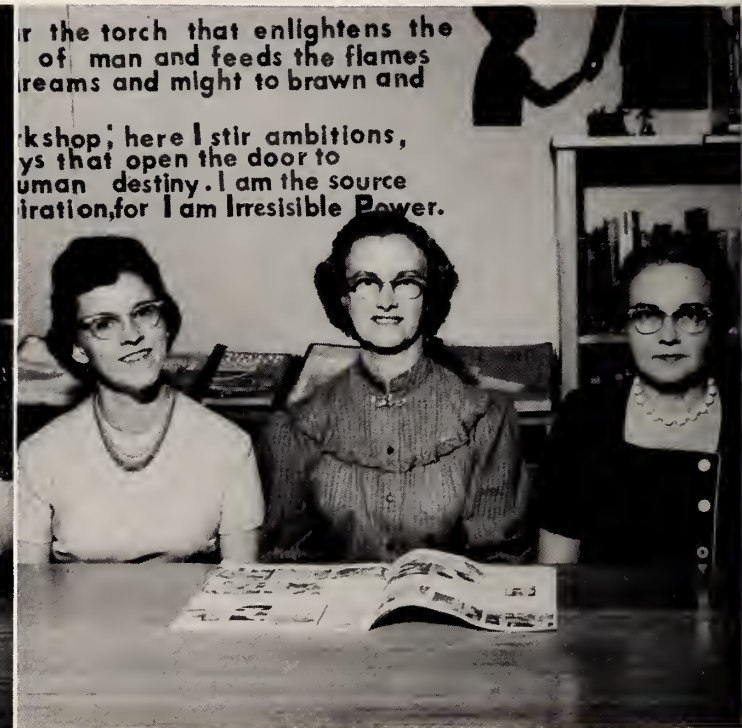

Getting the first graders off to a good start are Mrs. Lydia Johnson, Mrs. Ruby Canipe, Mrs. Anne Madison and Mrs. Kate Key.

Under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Nolan and Mrs. Iris Canipe, the second graders are doing a fine job.

With Mrs. Ruth White, Mrs. Mary Harris, and Mrs. Catherine Wilkins, the third graders are getting acquainted with their new books.

Mrs. Helene Dudley, Mrs. Edith Bray and Mrs. Blanche Rash are kept busy every minute of the day helping the fourth graders.

Mrs. Mary Essic, Miss Lois Parks, and Mrs. Jean Mathis, the fifth grade teachers, believe that "All work and no play make Jack a dull boy."

On the playground or in the classroom, Mr. Harvey Madison, Mr. Chy Rash and Mrs. Blanche Phillips are always lending a helping hand to the sixth graders.

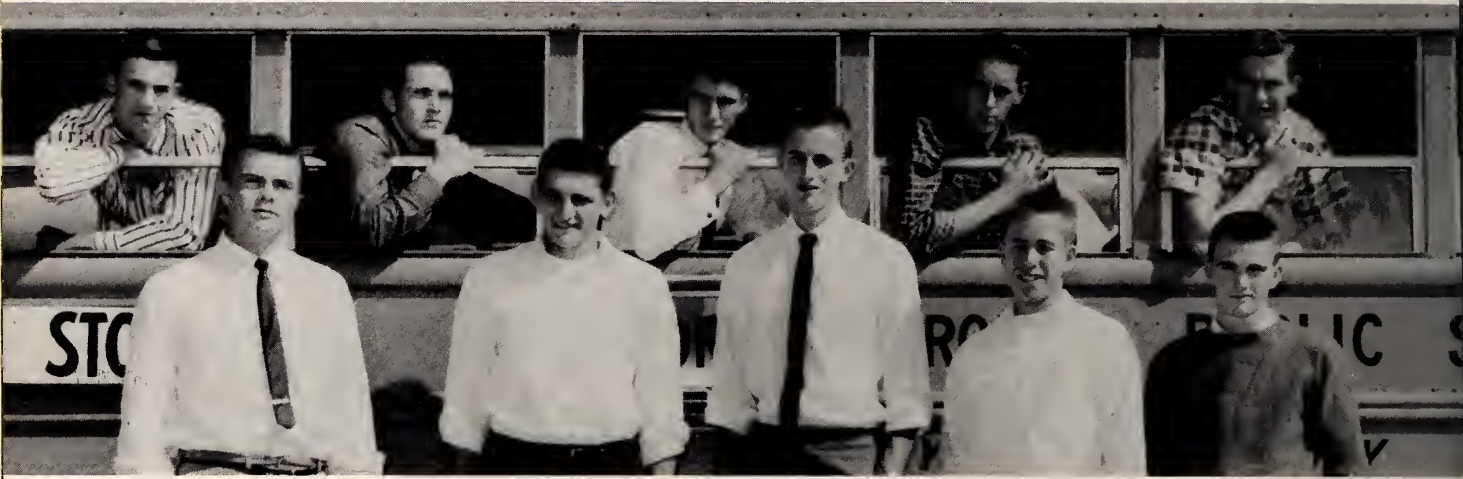

With Mrs. Mary Lee Kelly, Mrs. Mabel Wagoner and Mrs. Edna Reece as teachers, there is never a dull moment in the seventh grade classes.

Mr. Clyde Phillips and Mr. Edward West are kept busy preparing the eighth graders for high school.

Those Who Serve

BUS DRIVERS

Whether on a snowy day or a spring morning these boys may be depended on to get our pupils to school. Row One: Wayne Ray, Garland Ford, Howard Pardue, Odean

Bryant, Barry Tilley. Row Two: David Sparks, Donald Swaim, Grady Simmons, Bobby Ford, Leo Finney.

CUSTODIAN

MR. L. S. LONG

A man who is always ready to help the students or teachers.

OFFICE GIRLS

Nancy Everidge, Josephine Spann, Joel Bryant, assist Mr. Swain in the office. Without their help it would be impossible to keep the many office records straight.

VOLUNTEER POSTMAN

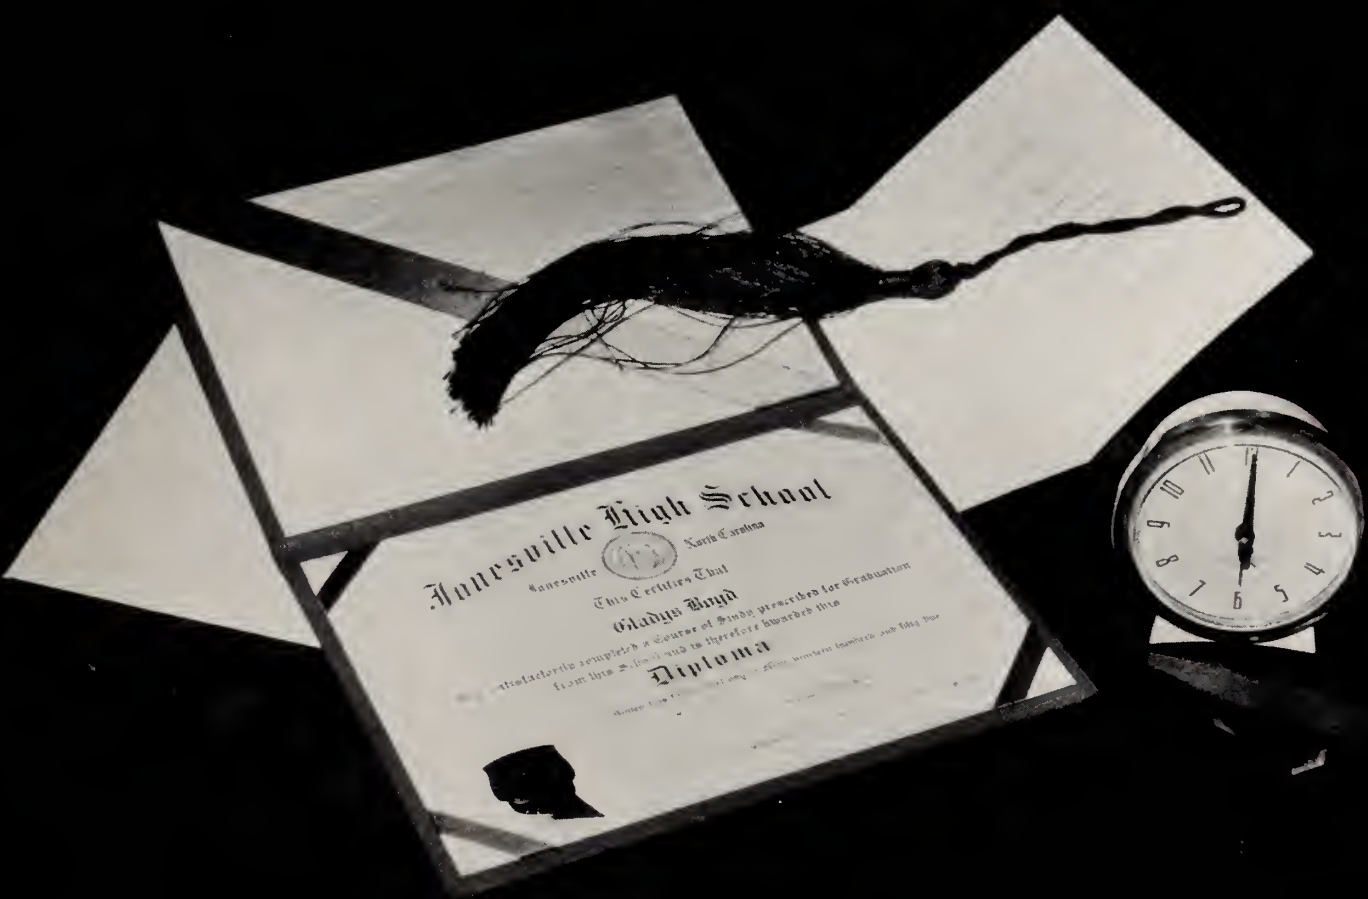

A pleasant sight any morning is Mr. D. M. (Doc) McBride bringing in the school mail.

LUNCHROOM PERSONNEL

A hard working group who prepares delicious meals for about 900 students a day. Minnie Carr, Ethel Adams, Sadie Vanhoy, Lois Harris, Estelle Byrd, Myrtle Ray, Ruby Freeman.

Days To Remember

September 3, 1958 and we can't believe we are Seniors, with all the privileges and honors due us. Jo Ann Chappell is really taking this serious.

After school sessions on the annual are not always so enjoyable, but Josephine Spann, Carolyn Everidge, Jo Ann Smith, Joel Bryant, and Frances Brown wouldn't miss them.

Class History

As we, the Seniors of '59, look back on our 4 years in high school, we find that we have many moments to remember. Our time here can be divided into four sections.

In the fall of 1955, we entered high school with a group of 64. To our dismay we were initiated as Dogpatch characters. Any indignities we may have suffered were soon forgotten when the Senior Class gave us a party that night. That year the football team, with 6 players from our class, reached the semi-finals in the State Class A tournament. With our final exams behind us, we gladly left school for three months of fun.

A class of 46 started the Sophomore year. We greeted Mr. Swain, our new principal, with an air of anticipation. The basketball team went to the finals in the State Class A tournament. Our class placed 2 players on the squad. Now with our finals over, we were ready for 3 months of vacation.

We finally became upperclassmen with a group of 47. So many exciting things happened during our Junior Year. The Junior play, "Swing Fever," was a big success. Also there was much excitement planning for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. The theme of the prom was "Teahouse of the August Moon." Finally our class rings arrived in April. Never was there a more excited group than we, showing our rings to everyone. Now with final exams over, we welcomed 3 months of freedom.

In the fall of 1958, we began our Senior year with a group of 44. We are looking forward to the Senior Play, the trip to Washington, D. C., and the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. We initiated the Freshmen as Disneyland characters and gave them a party that night. Soon we will receive our diplomas and walk out into the world. Although we may do many things and visit many places, we shall always remember our days in high school.

These first graders get into the mood for Thanksgiving by giving a scene of the Pilgrims and Indians. Seated are: Gary Pennell, Joyce Gchant, Scottie Calloway, Libby Freeman. Standing: Rita Vestal, Phillip Carter, Susan Pardue, Dennis Johnson, David Kirk, Johnny Ipock, Billie Stoncstreet, Glenda Durham, Mary Casstevens.

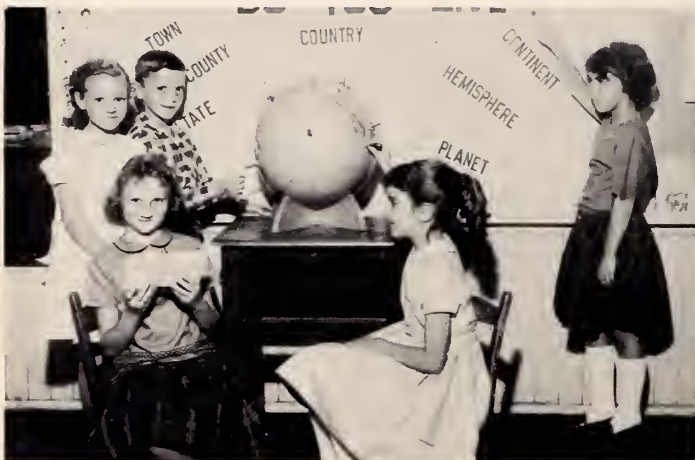

Along with the learning these first graders are doing, Christian Shores, Wanda Luffman, Tommie Haynes, Stephen Adams, and Douglas Martin take some time for play.

Some of the first graders displaying their artistic talent are: Jimmy Boyette, Marquita Wilborn, Mary Smith, Joyce Draughn, Laura Gchant, Janice Harris, and Dennis Macemore.

Representing some of the work that the first grade is doing are: Regina Vanhoy, Bill Walters, Linda Nichols, Danny Martin, Joyce Holeman, and Eddie Wolfe.

Studying Geography, a new subject of the 3rd grade, "Where In the World Do You Live?" Sitting: Kathy Rumble, Deborah Haynes. Standing: Chris Martin, Sharon Blackburn, and Debbie Simmons.

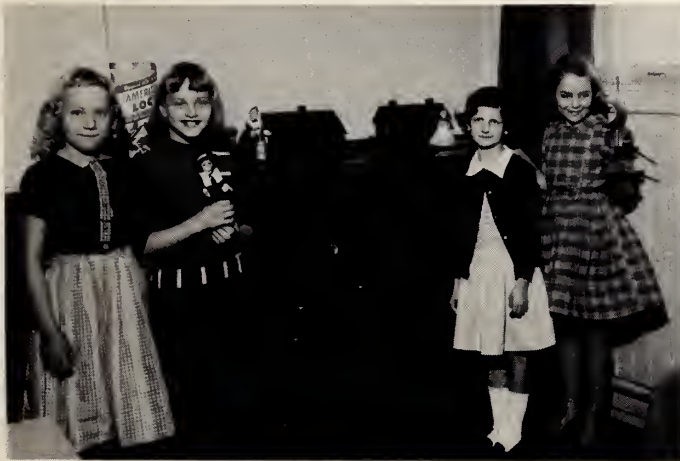

Displaying some of the 4th grade work are: Donnie Hemric, Ricky Batte, Michael Gambill, and Janie Stokes.

Here are some of the wild flowers we have collected. Rita Kemmer, Lynn Myers, Sammy Freeman, Linda Bauguess, Ronnie Pinnix, Ann Martin, Juanita Chappell.

We have finished our work and are ready to pose for pictures. Larry Freeman, Linda Morrison, Sharon Moncus, Larry Childress, Benny DeHart.

These girls have been making some pilgrims: Karon Jones, Patricia Myers, Vicky Benton, Margaret Harris.

These girls are prospective "Girl Scouts" of the fifth grade: Dixie June Collins, Brenda Wilkins, Phyllis McBride, Melinda Sprinkle.

If I didn't know better I would say Mrs. Reece's seventh graders are studying.

These students have been making a study of trees: Tom Kelly, Terry Blackburn, Karen Myers, Linda Nicks, David Pardue.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA TROOP 25

JONESVILLE SCHOOL SAFETY PATROL

Because of them, children really live at Jonesville School. Row One: Clarence Freeman, Jr., Kenneth Macemore, Tommy Boles, Larry Wagoner, Richard Woody, Dean Ferguson, Ronnie Adams, James Rash. Row Two: Mr. West, Chris Canipe, Kenneth Haynes, Jerry Robinson, Loyd Spiuier, Donald Adams, Harry Groce, Johnny Reece, Tommy Benton.

The Jonesville 4-H is an active organization in our school, helping boys and girls to become wide-awake leaders in their communities.

Each year one of the most important jobs is planning the layout for the yearbook.

The staff is composed of Seniors and a few of the interested Juniors.

The Annual is financed by circulation and securing advertisements from the local businessmen.

Though we have fun working together, it is not play to write copy, plan pictures, and the many things that go into making our Blue Jay a treasured yearbook.

Future Teachers of America

Jerry Martin (Treasurer); Gale Martin (President); Reg Banner (Secretary); Linda Wood (Vice-President).

Future Teachers Club was organized in 1953. It was named the John Dewey Club in honor of that famous educator. The main purpose of the F.T.A. is to interest good students in becoming teachers. Miss Jo Ann Smith is shown helping in a fifth grade class.

Future Farmers of America

OFFICERS

Yancy St. John, Secretary; Donald Swaim, President; James Armstrong, Sentinel; David Sparks, Vice-President; Mr. Boles, Advisor; Ivan Wagoner, Treasurer.

Seth Cheek and Yancy St. John are working on a project.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of, by, and for boys studying vocational agriculture. Leadership and character development, co-operation, improved citizenship, and improved agriculture are the goals of the F.F.A. Schoolground beautification and community service are the primary projects of the coming year.

OFFICERS

Row One: Eunice Peoples, Chaplain; Imogene Hall, Historian; Linda Eller, Reporter; Elaine McGhee, President. Row Two: Brenda Long, Treasurer; Claudia Swaim, Song Leader; Hilda Sparks, Parliamentarian; Mildred Swaim, Vice-President; Jean Jarvis, Secretary.

Our club presents a radio program over WIFM during F.H.A. week, and makes an improvement to some part of our school. This year we are placing pictures in the library.

From their study of flower arrangements, we expect attractive results from the hands of Eunice Peoples, Elaine McGhee, Jean Jarvis, Eloise Chappell, and Carol Collins.

MEMBERS

OFFICERS

Our club plans to carry out a worthwhile interesting program each month. We plan to add one piece of needed equipment to the Homemaking Department—ironing board number 2.

From nature we often get ideas for designs, as well as color, for dress materials. So demonstrating are Laura Montgomery, Pansy Brown, Brenda Pepper, and Sharon Tilley.

MEMBERS

Row One: Linda Chappell, Rita Waldrup, Glenda Vanhoy, Patsy Thomas, Laura Montgomery, Brenda Pepper, Irene Shore, Dorothy Hutchins, and Glenda Cook. Row Two: Linda Armstrong, Sharon Tilley, Janet Newman, Judy Hemric, Sue Ray, Bobbie Femister, Pansy Brown, Ruth Burgess, Jane Reece, Judy Evans, and Mary Jones.

Tony Steelman, Gale Martin, Grady Simmons are making posters for one of their annual dances.

During the year we make money for our club by sponsoring a "Sweetheart Ball," a "Christmas Dance" and sell tags for automobiles. We help the World Service and also other Christian organizations throughout the United States.

Library Club

OFFICERS

Faye Shores, Secretary; Jean Myers, President; Barbara Nations, Vice-President.

The Library Club was organized in 1947 to correlate the activities of pupil library assistants and to recognize their services. The purpose of the club is to sponsor greater interest among students in libraries, to stimulate reading interests, and to improve the library service of the school. With our help it is possible to maintain neatness in the library. We enjoy fixing the bulletin board for all occasions as Linda Pardue and Jean Myers are demonstrating.

MEMBERS

First Row: Evelyn Finney, Jean Myers, Linda Pardue, Bonnie Finney,

Girl Scouts

First Row: Florence Gray, President; Josephine Spann, Vice-President; Carolyn Everidge, Chaplain. Second Row: Josephine Holcomb, Reporter; Jo Ann Smith, Treasurer; Nancy Everidge, Secretary.

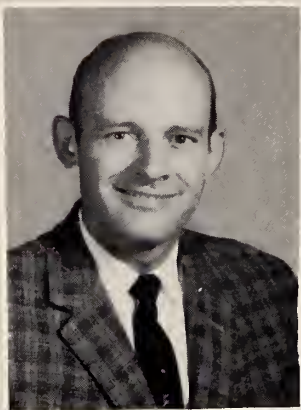

Some of the projects of The Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 36 have been to paint the Scout house and to go on several cookouts. The cookouts were the real highlights of the year. All the girls agree they never tasted better food. Here Josephine Spann, Joann Smith, Josephine Holcomb and Frances Brown are making turkeys to put on trays as favors in the local hospital.

MEMBERS

BEST ALL ROUND

Best all round in DECEMBER, and best all round any old time, are GRADY PREVETTE and CAROLYN EVERIDGE.

MOST STUDIOUS

PEGGY CHAPPELL and BILL COOK not only earn this title for JANUARY during exams, but for the rest of the year, too.

BEST LOOKING

The annual FEBRUARY dance was honored by GRADY SIMMONS and JOEL BRYANT, our best looking couple.

MOST COURTEOUS

Courteous people like JO ANN CHAPPELL and IVAN WAGONER are needed most in MARCH because of the naughty winds.

WITTEST

Two wits that love APRIL Fool's Day are DAVID SPARKS and SUDIE COOK.

BEST PERSONALITY

FRANCES BROWN and DONALD GROCE having the best personalities are happy because its MAY and school is almost out.

Fall is the season for beauty queens. Here are four for your choosing.

A Backward Glance

The Senior Play was a three-act comedy—"College Daze."

Two Johnnys are getting a bit rough.

But this is certainly a friendly scene.

Just to show how lovely our girls looked at Junior-Senior — Sudie Cook with David Draughn and Carolyn Ingool with Kenneth Whitaker.

Barbara Adams, Miss Speer, and Stacie Groce plainly show their joy when they received a first place rating on the 1958 Blue Jay from the Columbia Scholastic Press.

Times and Places we will miss

With so much emphasis on Science today, already we know we should have used our time here better. And this means our other classes, too.

Time spent in the library is not lost—for books are friends that are always sincere.

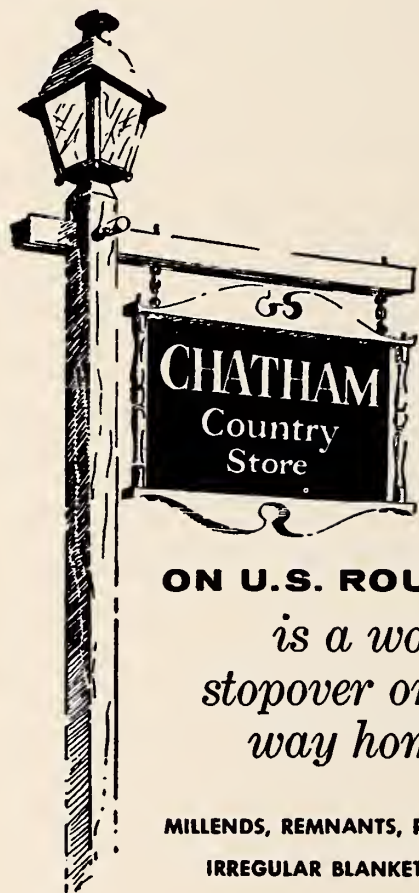

This exemplifies so much more than typing—the help it gave us for extracurricular activities—the comradeship of working together.

Then the wonderful, irresponsible feeling of “school let out”—3:15—the time of no return—We will miss you!
